Loving Enemies

- Jesus calls His followers to exhibit a kind of love that is unique in the world (vv. 32–34)
- The kind of love Jesus commands relies on actions, not on feelings (vv. 27–31, 35)
- This kind of love follows God's example (vv. 35–36)

Loving Enemies

- The primary “enemy” in view are those who hate/exclude/revile/spurn on a personal or social level because of one’s faith (cf. v. 22)
